

CAFS report for Oct 2013

October is the occasion of the first CAFS supper + film of the season on Sat 12 Oct and we aim to have a good time with a tempting supper and the classic comedy "The Odd Couple". There will be an American-themed supper featuring turkey, vegetables and cranberry sauce followed by apple pie and ice-cream with tea/coffee afterwards. A vegetarian option will be available for those who notify us in advance. Tickets will cost £15 for the supper + film, (£11 for season ticket holders) and £4 at the door for the film only. Drinks will be available as extras.

The event will take place at Caldbeck Village Hall, supper at 6.30pm followed by the film at approx 7.40pm. To book tickets in advance, please ring Janet Stanyer on 016974 78188 or Tricia Nelson on 016973 49837 before 8th Oct. Tickets will also be available for sale from either Caldbeck or Hesket Newmarket village stores.

The Odd Couple (PG) 1968 USA 101 mins was adapted from a play by Neil Simon and contains his usual witty one-liners and a wry look at different characters thrown together by fate. Felix (Jack Lemmon) is thrown out by his wife and attempts suicide. He is rescued and taken in by his divorced friend Oscar (Walter Matthau). Messy, chaotic Oscar is driven to distraction by Felix and his many tics, hypochondria and obsessive cleaning. Oscar's regular poker nights are spoiled and result in some serious quarrels. Oscar arranges a double date with the English girls from the upstairs apartment, which goes disastrously wrong. Could this be the turning point for the Odd Couple and their relationship and are they turning into just another bickering, old married couple ?
