

ANCHOR AND HOPE

20th
Year!

Spring
Season
2019

Release: 2017

Cert (UK): 15

Country: Spain

Language: English

Runtime: 1 hour 53 mins

Director: Carlos Marques-Marcet

Writer: Jules Nurrish, Carlos Marques-Marcet

Cinematographer: Dagmar Weaver-Madsen

Cast: Natalia Tena, Oona Chaplin, Geraldine Chaplin

Two women, Eva and Kat, are living an idyllic bohemian life on a canal boat in London. What happens when Eva decides she wants a baby and Kat disagrees? Maybe nothing, but when Kat's best friend Roger turns up and agrees to be the father, and then moves in too, it is fair to expect some problems arise! This comedy drama follows the events set in the cramped space of the canal boat where the (now) threesome try to work out what they want while they plan for the fourth to arrive.

Eva is played by Oona Chaplin (daughter of Geraldine Chaplin, who plays her mother here) and Natalie Tena plays Kat; both get good reviews. 'The performances are excellent, the dialogue is witty and the canals of north London are beautifully shot' - Andy Lea, Daily Express.

The director Carlos Marques-Marcet has been involved with the film industry since 2010, in almost every role from actor to producer, editor to director. This is his third full length film as a director.

